CALL FOR POSTERS

The Biocomplexity Institute of Virginia Tech invites you to submit abstracts for poster presentations at the 2017 Research Symposium happening November 8, 2017 [8:30am - 6pm]. This is a unique occasion to share your work with the Virginia Tech community and foster further collaborations across campus.

Researchers affiliated with the Biocomplexity Institute are particularly encouraged to submit an abstract and take advantage of this opportunity to showcase the institute’s latest research.

The deadline for electronic submission is 5:00pm EDT, Friday, October 6, 2017. Read guidelines below, then email Erin Raymond: erinr18@bi.vt.edu to submit your abstract. Don’t forget to Register.

Abstract Guidelines

- Abstracts must be of original research.
- Abstracts should be 250 words or less and should be tailored for diverse audiences. Titles, author names, and affiliations are not included in that word count.
- List affiliations for all authors, such as universities and other institutions.
- List names of all authors, in the order in which you wish them to appear online. Presenting author should be clearly designated on the abstract and poster.
- Do not use tables, charts, or graphs in your abstract submission (they can be included in the actual poster).
